WE reprint to-day from the Hongkong Catholic Register the report of Bishop RAIMONDI on the Roman Catholic educational and charitable institutions of Hongkong. The Bishop and those who labour under him are to-be congratulated on the success they have achieved, particularly in the educational department of their work. However much we may differ from our Roman Catholic friends on certain points of policy; however fanciful we may consider their grievances in reference to the grant-in-aid scheme and other mutters, the amount of good they accomplish by their admiration of all. As to the extent of the work the Report speaks for itself, and we need not here repeat the numbers of the children who attend the different schools or of those who receive assistance from the several! charitable institutions. The establishment of a blind school for Chinese children is, to terminate Articles V. and VI. of the Treaty classes one for Chinese learning English. English even provided with European teachers but a commencement having been made be hoped that the number of those benefited by it will in the course of time be largely augmented, and that boys as well as girls will share in the advantages it confers. The lady in charge of the school is, we believe, a trained teacher specially to undertake this work. The school is certainly an object deserving of the warmest support, and if its conductors thought to so laudable an object.

We are of opinion that one of the causes of the great distress prevailing amongst the Portuguese at that place is their never having thought of bringing up their youth to and that they had commanded the natives to prosome respectable trade." This is unquestionable. The Bishop's idea is to add to the Industrial School a department reserved for European boys where they would be taught different trades. This would be a very good commencement, and when a few of the boys so taught had grown up and established themselves in business the ordinary system of apprenticeship would, we think, turn out gramme. workmen well fitted to supply the requirements of their various trades. > ROMAN CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL AND CHARITABLE ESTABLISH MENTS OF HONGKONG.

The Right Rev. Bishop Reimondi has issued the following report: In our report last year we thought it better to take our Educational and Charitable Establishments in order, according to their local position: but seeing that by this plan the statements do not show so clearly as usual, we are compelled to return to our old system of grouping them according to the purposes of their institution. We shall, therefore, on the present occasion, divide our report into two parts; the first embracing the whole of the Roman Catholic Educational Establishments in the Colony and the second dealing with the Charitable Institutions. From the different branches both of the Edutional and Charitable Establishments, it will clearly appear that our aim is to supply, so far as is in our power, the existing wants of people living in Hongkong. We are convinced that Education ought to be adapted to the wants and circumstances of the places intended to be bonefitted, and that it is simply a waste of money and energy to not upon the principle that what is

Our Establishments do not owe their existence to any desire on our part to compette with others. to any other motive than a sense of the duty imposed upon us by our position, to furnish our Catholic Community with suitable means of obtaining education; and from a feeling of compassion towards the poor sufferers whom to aid. we are convinced, every one is called upon according to his means. Small as are our Establishments, they are not wanting in variety. Nor is it to be supposed that we formed any plan originally to work upon; our Institutions have sprung up one after another according as the need for them arose. Some of them are, however, rather too small for our requirements, and others are desired, but for want of means we are unable to accomplish our wishes. Big is the heart, but small the purse. We shall

EDUCATIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS -ELEMEN-TARY SCHOOLS FOR BOYS

I.—The School for Enropean boys at Wanchi under the are of the Italian Sisters, is going on well. The number of boys, however, is not increasing as is the number of the girls in that part of the town. The number of boys attending the school is twelve. 2.—Under the care of the same sisters, a European school for the boys is kept on Caine-road, at the Italian Convent. The number of the boys enrolled was 25, and the average attendance during the year was 20. We would here remurk that all the boys who have come from this school have greatly distinguished themselves. There is no doubt that the system of tuition from Europe adopted by the Italian Sisters, is extremely well suited to the canacity of children and gradually developes their intelli-

3.—A school for Chinese boys is kept at Wanbi, under the immediate superintendence of the Missionaries. The pupils number 23, and are almost all Christians. The system of teaching is quite an elementary one, and entirely suited to Christian boys. The attendance has been 4.—Another school like the preceding, under the immediate superintendence of the Missionaries, is situated at the eastern side of the Catholie Cathedral. The pupils numbered 44; with this one we are more satisfied than with that at

COMMERCIAL SCHOOLS. 5.—St. Joseph's College is under the direction of the Christian Brothers, whose strength was ncreased during last year by the addition of two more English Brothers, bringing the Staff' of the College up to seven. The zeal of these good and clever teachers in promoting Education has been crowned with complete success." At the end of 1876 the pupils numbered 165, and at the end of 1877 they were 198. The examinations have been very successful; and, what we prize even more, the pupils obtain situations in competition with boys from other Schools. We regard this as the best test of the standard of education imparted and of the system adopted by the Christian Brothers. Our aim has been attained. We wanted to provide the Roman Catholics with a good sound education, and it has been openly recognized that that im-

The pupils numbered 32, and the painstaking of the teachers was remarkable. 7.—" Victoria School" a private institution.

has been very successful, the boys attending numbered 35. 8.—Two other private Schools, where Portuguese is taught are conducted in Hongkons Portuguesa. The boys attending numbered 38. HIGHER SCHOOL.

9.—The little Seminary at the R.C. Missionhouse for boys preparing for the Pricethood, is going on very steadily. There are eleven students at present, all Chinese of whom two are reading Theology. Except the smallest, all speak Latin tolerably well and some of them prepare compositions in that language which do them gredit. The pronunciation also in Latin is very good, and certainly for superior by comparison to that used by Chinese generally in speaking English. INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

10.—The West Point Reformatory for Boys. under the care of the Christian Brothers, has been progressing. The work done at the Establishment has increased, and the boy shave made wonderful progress in printing. Several works in various languages, done very neatly, have issued therefrom. The number of the boys has the Chinese being upward of sixty, to whom not less than 12 boys of other nationalities, have been added. More would have been accepted had there been room. A great necessity exists sidence there and knows the Kaffir well, that the regard then to Chinese habits, it is practically youth. Bookbinding, carpentering, and even have been expected, and would poorly remunerate shoemaking ought not to be disdained. Far hetter for these boys to have an honorable trade. We think that, by enlarging the Reformatory formance on Tuesday night at a reduced price we could have a Department reserved for the European boys; and we have no doubt the Government would willingly assist us, as up to the present nothing has been done on behalf of the > GIRLS SCHOOLS. 11.—The Schools for European Girls at the Italian Convent, Caine Read, is progressing very satisfactorily. There were at the end of the year 22 boarders, and 115 day scholars, divided into two classes, one English, and one Portuguese. Public examinations were held at the Convent last year, and proved a complete success. The girls were questioned in various languages, and n an enormous number of different branches of study, including Cosmology and Astronomy and to all questions put to them they never hesitated to reply in the most satisfactory manner. Embroidery and music, both vocal and instrumental, are taught at the Convent in the highest perfection.

Every one attending the examinations at the Italian Convent could not fail to admire the great progress made by the pupils, and the painstaking of the excellent Sisters who teach them. The admiration will be greater when we consider that the attendance of the day scholars was not very regular. 12.—The other School for European girls kept by the same Italian Sisters at Wanchi, has been also successful, the number of pupils enrolled was 42. The attendance in this School was better than that at the Convent in Caine Road. The Education imparted in this School is not so high as that given in Caine Road, but the School is a good elementary one. 13.—A very good private School for English girls has been opened at "L'Asile de la St. En-

So soon as they can hold in their little hands a small piece of cloth, they are taught to work Nentness is very remarkable there. Besides the children kept in the house, the good sisters have always a very considerable number of little babies at nurse outside, not less than eighty, all females, with one or two exceptions. 17.—Another Establishment of the same cha racter is kept in Caine Road, at the Italian Convent and forms one of the numerous Departments f that large Institute. The average number of little children, all females under seven years of age, taken care of there, was 40, and that of the female babies at nurse outside the convent, at the end of the year 82. 18.—An orphanage for European girls is kept it the Italian Convent in Caine Road. They are taught to read and write their own language. withmetic, needlework, and embroidery. Their number is annually increasing, and at the end of the year, there were not less than 67. A great many have to be refused for want of room. The Italian Convent is so much taken up by the large number of its immates, that undappil separate room cannot be found for an Infirmary and in the event of an epidemic occurring the mortality might be severe. The Superioress if the Convent pressed by this great want determined to go to Philippine Islands, begging in order to provide for it. We trust she will succeed, and that the good Catholics of those Islands will come to her help as a not very large sum will suffice to meet the pressing wants the Sisters are so anxious to supply 19.—An orphanage for Chinese girls is also kept at the Italian Convent. There were 69 inmates at the end of the year. BEFORE C. V. CREAGH, ESQ. THEFT FROM A STORE. Ma Achai a bostman, was charged with stealing tin of cocoa, from the store of Messrs. Lam. nert. Atkinson & Co. Frederick Rober Rogers said he was in employ of Messrs, Lammert, Atkinson & Co. The risoner is a boatman in the same employ and has seen so for more than a year. Part of his duty vas to assist in the store. At about five o'clock p.m., on Friday, before closing the store, witness opened a case of cocoa containing twelve tins. There were no similar tins in the store. At half-past seven-o'clock that morning witness found that one of the tins, which he had placed altogether the previous evening, had been removed from the store. He kept a watch upon the prisoner, because it was his duty to sweep the store. Soon after the tin was missed witness noticed the prisoner leaving the store with a plate in his hand, and the tin of cocoa produced. vhich he was endeavouring to conceal beneath the plate. Witness asked the prisoner what he was doing with the tin, and he said. "I want to see what it is like." He also asked witness to overlook the offence. The tin produced belonged to the firm; it was worth about sixty cents. Several things had disappeared from the store from time to time. The prisoner was never employed to try the quality of cocoa or any other. The prisoner admitted taking the tin, and said he thought it was damaged and wished to see whether it was good or bad. His Worship sentenced the prisoner to three months' imprisonment with hard labour.

In Hongkong, as your Excellency is aware, land has become extremely valuable, and in order to make it profitable as an investment, it is necessary to take advantage to the utmost of the space at command. Chinese tenants are, as a rule, on the other hand, unable or unwilling to pay high rents for their dwelling rooms, and it is only by so dividing the houses that many families or persons can reside in each division that Chinese property is made profitable and at the same time the necessary lowness of rents attained. We hear of a very daring case of robbery from the person of a foreigner. A few evenings ago, a foreign visitor to the Settlement was while on his way to the Foodhow Hotel, accosted in the main—waterside—thoroughfare,—near Messrs-Hedge & Co.'s, by a Cantonese, who addressed him rather familiarly in English. The foreigner did not, we hear, welcome the Celestial's advances. and, in fact, was about to rid himself of the intruder when he suddenly found a handkerchief (over which some fluid had been poured) thrust into his nostrils: he became insensible almost immediately, and while in this helpless condition, was robbed of his gold watch and chain, a diamond ring and breast-pin, and about $40 in cash. The unfortunate gentleman remained on the ground in a senseless state until nearly daybreak, when he was discovered by one of the neighbouring native shopkeepers, who kindly assisted him home. I took advantage of a pleasant run to Kushan this week to interview the priest who some two months ago burned off one of his fingers, as an not of devotion. This man is the subject of a most interesting and accurate communication by an eye-witness.

"S.L.B." which appeared in the Fooch no Herald,

f the 16th May. He also figures in a paragraph (facetions, I presume) in last week's issue. The main object of my inquiry was to ascertain whether a ligature had been applied to the fluorer prior to burning, and, if so, how far this would prevent pain during the performance of

After the usual amount of examination and cross examination that is always required to get the truth from & Celestial on any subject, the following facts were. I think, clearly made out. A ligature was used, but it was applied only about half an hour before the man placed his finger in the flame of the candle. The finger therefore could not have been previously in a state of gaugreno.

To simplify matters as much as possible, and by way of an experimentum in corpore vili. I desired the man and his friends to bind my finger in the same way. This they very kindly consented to do, and produced a piece of ordinary hempen string for the purpose—the kind ofstring native shoemakers use. The man began by slipping a double "clove-hitch" on to the ring finger of my left hand, and tightened it instr below the second joint by pulling on the free ends of the string. At this stage, the priest very politely intimated that he would not pull quite so tight as was done in his case, and he then continued one of the ends of the string spirally round the finger towards the extremity, until he reached a point just below the first joint. The test of insensibility in his case was to put the end of the finger into his mouth and bite it; when he felt no pain that finger was ready to be placed in the flame. When At any time during the process, of incineration he becan to have pain, he had the ligature tightened by his friends, and he assured me that in this way he hardly suffered at all from the burning. The application of the ligature I should say, must have been the worst part of the business. The whole burning and the final clipping off of the finger occupied about an hour. The finger is off just below the second joint, and the stump is "granulating" feebly. He has a dressing of chopped leaves applied to the wound, the whole being covered with oiled paper. I then proceeded to ask about the graduated yearly sporifice of his members up to the elbow Council and of Sir Michael Hicks Beach to a joint kindly set for him in the last week's Horald. I understood the man to distinctly disclaim the honour of such martyrdom. I may add that vision in one eye is lost by old disease, and the state of the other is past hoping for, so that in a short time the poor fellow will be quite blind .- J. R. S. in Foochow Herald.
